

Kenny L. Scoggins

April 18, 1986 - March 10, 2018

Kenny Scoggins, 31, of Sandersville, Mississippi died Saturday, March 10, 2018.

Visitation will be Friday, March 16, 2018 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Memory Chapel Funeral Home in Laurel.

A memorial service will be planned at a later date.

Kenny was preceded in death by his step-father Ken Rowell.

Kenny was a loving husband, father, son, brother, and uncle. He leaves behind his wife, Kacie Scoggins, son, Landon Paul Scoggins (10), daughter, Izabelle Claire Scoggins (8), his mother, Pamela Scoggins, father, Dayton Scoggins, step-mother, Michelle Scoggins, brother, Micheal (Celeste) Scoggins, step-brother, Brandon Rowell, step-sister, Morgan Rowell, step-sister, Anne Gregory (Attila Rostas - husband), step-brother, Donny Gregory, niece, Shyann Scoggins, nephew, Sammy Scoggins and niece Paisley Winstead, in-laws, Willie and Cissy Westbrooks, and sister-in-law Maggie Westbrooks.

Kenny began carving at the age of 16 and was partnered with his father, Dayton at Artistry in Wood, where they carved wood with chainsaws into beautiful masterpieces all over the United States. He competed in Speed Carving for the USA in Mulda, Germany. Kenny competed and won in numerous carving competitions from the East to West coasts. His talent allowed for him and his family to travel across the United States making memories that they will cherish forever, where they became part of the large family within the carving community. His carvings, along with his fathers are displayed along the Gulf Coast and throughout the United States. We will miss you Kenny Scoggins ... always.

“ Chainsaw artist Kenny Scoggins came up from Mississippi Nov. 19 and set to work, creating five sculptures - including a 13-foot totem pole - at the Blue Arrow Farm on Glenwood Road. He worked steadily, even through the Dec. 10 snowstorm, and finished up in time to make it home for Christmas... We took the time to watch his amazing talent creating such beautiful work.
