December 6, 1948 - October 28, 2015

Larry Wayne Braddock, 66, of Laurel, passed away Wednesday, October 28, 2015.

Larry, informally known as “Big L” or Coach”, touched many lives throughout the years. From coaching Dixie Youth baseball, to devoting much of his time to being an usher at the First Baptist Church of Laurel, he was most happy when he was doing things for others. Spending time with his grandchildren, fishing, tending to his cattle, or attending any Ole Miss football game he could, were a few of the things he enjoyed doing in his life. Larry never knew a stranger, and never missed the opportunity to fill a room with laughter. He was loved by all and will be missed by many.

He was preceded in death by his parents, W. R. and Margie Marie Braddock. Survivors include his wife, Barbara Ann Braddock of Laurel; two sons, Keith Braddock and wife, Melissa of Laurel and Dusty Braddock and wife, Jessica of Petal; one daughter, Michele Beagle of Acworth, Georgia; seven grandchildren, Hayden Braddock, Morgan Braddock, Kye Braddock, Katsyn Braddock, Dawson Braddock, Kollyns Braddock, and Brooks Braddock; one great grandchild, Charlee McKellar; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Larry Ishee, Wayne Graves, Mike Boyles, Walter "Buzz:" Jack, Clifton Herrington, and Steve McCraw. Honorary pallbearers will be Dr. Paul Mefferd, Fred Cooley, Dempsey Brady, Barry Sauls, Judge David Lyons, and Tom Bergensis.

“ Barbara, this saddens us greatly. We remember all the fun times we had at SS with you guys. I remember Larry preceding the lessons with the night before ball scores. We will be praying for you and family in the days to come.

“ one thing I'm going to miss most about Big L is him calling me to pick on me about whatever he could think of. There's a big empty spot in my heart with him gone. There's not a day that will go by that he won't be missed. His family treated me like one of theirs and I will forever love them for it.
