“ Dear family, How blessed to call Warren my friend, part of my church family, and mentor. I loved his humble prayers, his loving spirit, and the ability to have a laugh and enjoy life no matter what state his physical body was. I cherish my last visit with him last month and with your sweet mother.
Prayers for each of you, Sharon Barham

“ Mr. Warren did more with less for the city of Laurel than anyone. He was a very committed and hard working man. Many lives were affected in a positive way. He and I use to chat when he was umpiring. He was a rare individual and is responsible for Laurel’s recreational program. Semper Fi.

“ *One of my favorite people in Laurel. He was a REAL community person who cared about people & was well loved. So kind to me always. Sincere sympathy to those who knew & loved him & the numbers are much more than just family. He has been missed by various causes he championed.
