“ Your mom was a very special lady. She made all of us want to seek God's guidance in our lives. We (my Walters and Little family) always felt like you all were our family too. Jan and Judy, we had some good times growing up. Enjoyed all the times we spent together. Praying for all of you. Love you all, Darrell and Alecia Tisdale.

“ My first memory of this sweet lady was watching her dance in the Spirit for God, the beauty and peace on her face left my heart hungry for what she had, she took my hand and said, "deep in your very own heart, the peace is there, reach down and grab it, honey", and she prayed for my peace. Thank you, Jesus and Sister Macy, for helping me when I was so desperate!

“ Aunt Macy could make the best tomato gravy her and my sister would come down to my dads house and make tomato gravy and biscuits. Dad always was waiting on Sarge and tugboat to roll in and cook . One thing will say she lived life to the fullest and today she is resting high on a mountain singing
