“ Dear Family, Time after time, and as recent as last week, whenever I was feeling down or having a bad day, I seemed to always get that call or text right out of the blue from Lee with a word of encouragement or maybe just a funny photo of some sort to brighten my day. Although he will be greatly missed, I have joy and comfort in believing that I will see him again. Thoughts and prayers with you all at this time.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with each and every one of you. Lee was a special person to me. I remember him before elementary school at Houston Road Baptist church. Then finished high school with him. He was the kind of man that no matter what he talked to you & with a smile. I always enjoyed talking to him. It seems I always ran into him at Walmart late at night because neither of us could sleep. As much as I will miss seeing him, I can't imagine how Karen, (also a childhood friend) & daughters, along with all family feel. Just know that you all are in our prayers! He was very loved!
