“ Oh suzy Q...oh how I am going to miss you! I wish I had known that you were leaving us so I could have prepared a few messages to send with you... but I know that you are forever happy now. I know you have already given my brother that big hug for me...I know there was the biggest smile on your face and he had that grin that he was famous for. I hope you knew what your friendship meant to me... I feel like I lost another piece of my heart when you left. RIP my friend... I love ya much... will miss you always. See you soon...
