

Lounett Pitts Butler

March 7, 1926 - October 14, 2013

Lounett Pitts Butler was born March 7, 1926, to Dan and Annie Mae McLain Pitts of the Beat Four Community, Waynesboro, Mississippi.

After graduation from Beat Four High School in 1945, Lounett and Edward Butler of Summerland, Mississippi were married November 12, 1945, while Edward actively served in the United States Navy. Mr. Butler passed away in 1989. For many decades Mr. and Mrs. Butler owned and operated Butler's Garage and Wrecker Service in the Laurel and Jones County area.

Visitation will be held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, October 17, 2013, at Memory Chapel followed by graveside services at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, at Memorial Gardens Cemetery. Rev. Wayne Johnson will officiate.

Mrs. Butler was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Butler; parents, Dan and Annie Mae Pitts; brothers, James E. Pitts and Hilburn Pitts; son, Danny Butler; and grandson, David Wigley.

Mrs. Butler is also survived by her aunt, Lois Pitts Street; brother, Jarvis (Jeanette) Pitts, sister-in-law, Dorothy Clark Pitts, and a number of cousins, nieces and nephews and their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler welcomed three children, seven grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. Their daughter is Bonnie Keller and son-in-law, Ron Keller and two sons, Danny Butler, who is now deceased but survived by his wife and their daughter-in-law, Evelyn Touchstone Butler, and Mark Butler and daughter-in-law, Christa Landrum Butler.

Mrs. Butler's family included seven grandchildren: Stephen (Theressa) Wigley,

Cara Butler (Keith) Quick, Chris (Theresa) Butler, Megan Butler (Walt) Bartran, Wesley Butler, and Kyle Keller. Great-grandchildren are Allison Wigley, Emma Wigley, Jessica Perritt, Kaitlyn Quick, Lauren Quick, Grayson Bartran, Collin Bartran, and Hudson Butler.

Serving as pallbearers will be Stephen Wigley, Wesley Butler, Keith Quick, Bruce Landrum, Walter Bartran, and Kyle Keller. Chris Butler will serve as honorary pallbearer.
