“ In Loving Memory of a very special lady. She and my aunt Ellis MacHarg were at The Bond Home in Madison from 2004-2008 when my aunt passed away. They were in rooms next to each other. They ate meals together in the dining hall and it was a delight to go to her room and visit when I visited Aunt El. When she went to The Highland Home I saw her name on the door and went to visit her on several occasions when I was there on business. It was so nice to see her, and I saw her last in early August and stopped and talked to her. I am sure she and Aunt El are in Heaven talking over old times. She was a very special lady and I am so pleased that she was a part of our lives at The Bond Home since my aunt had transferred there from Kissimmee, FL to be close to me, her only relative.
