“ Mandy was one of my most beautiful, loving nieces. Those beautiful eyes, little nose and sweetest spirited young lady. I will miss her and pray for her family. Sorry couldn't make it on such notice to her service.

“Gordon, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.. I love Mandy!! I remember the first day Mandy and Brenda came to Plainway. She was such a ray of sunshine! It seemed I had known her all my life. She had such a sweet personality and we hit it off!! We became fast friends!

She loved the Lord and always had ideas on how to grow the church! She was beautiful inside and out. She loved you and the kids and grandchildren! She sent me a Happy Mother's Day text this past Mother's Day and I sent her one back! She was so thoughtful and caring and loved to laugh.. she would talk about you and the kids all the time. I know she was having a hard time dealing with Brenda's death. She and I talked about it. She asked me how do I handle Ellis's death. I told her I have to pray a lot and ask God to help me get through one day at a time. Grief is a lonely road that we all have to travel.. I'm here if you ever need to talk. I have been where you are now.. you just have to learn to ask God to carry you when you feel like you don't know how to put one foot in front of the other. God never leaves us nor forsakes us. I am so glad that God allowed you and Mandy to come to Laurel and be at Plainway. Ellis and I always loved you and Mandy.. there are no words except you have my prayers. I love Mandy and will miss her terribly. Love you too.. don't ever feel like you are alone... God is always with you and you have friends that care. God Bless you in your time of grieving. Love and prayers my friend!

“ Mandy you were one of a kind! I could share a million memories and I can guarantee they all had laughter involved. We've had our whole life knowing each other. I know Heaven is sweeter and I know you were greeted at the gates when you arrived. I will forever cherish my memories. I love you my beautiful cousin. Until we see each other again.
