“ I want to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother. I've been gone from Laurel for 60 years but remember the Seefeld family fondly from the Lutheran church. I was also a classmate of Edith. You will all be in my prayers.

“ I am sorry to hear of Mrs Seefeld's passing. We enjoyed her fellowship at Justice Heights. She was a vital part of the congregation. I still place the beautiful snowflakes she crocheted on my Christmas tree. She was a very giving person.

“ Marion was a wonderful woman and I really enjoyed her friendship while she lived at Aldersgate in Meridian. Friends like Marion are very rare and I was blessed to be able to count her among mine. Her gentle spirit will be missed. May God's grace and strength be with you during this difficult time.
