

Marjorie Viar Craft

December 16, 1921 - December 23, 2010

Marjorie (Marge) Viar Craft, 89, died Thursday, December 23, at her home in Laurel.

Funeral services will be held at 11 am, Tuesday, December 28, at St. John's Episcopal Church in Laurel. Reverend Jeffrey Reich will officiate, and burial will follow at Lake Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Craft was a beloved wife and mother. She was also a skilled organizer, having worked during her life as a secretary for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, St. John's Day School, St. John's Episcopal Church, and the Laurel-Jones County Public Library. She also served as a kindergarten teacher at St. John's Day School and was an active communicant of St. John's Episcopal Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, S. V. (Sy) Craft, and her son, John Swenton (Jack) Craft.

Her survivors include her daughter and son-in-law, Mary and John Barth, of Grand Rapids, Michigan; her daughter, Cindy, of Point Venture, Texas; three step-grandchildren; and four step-great-granddaughters.

Visitation will be from 9:30 am until service time on Tuesday, December 28, in the Parish Chapel at St. John's Episcopal Church. Memory Chapel Funeral Home of Laurel is in charge of arrangements.

Memorials may be made to St. John's Episcopal Church, P. O. Box 1766, Laurel, MS 39440.

“ Cindy and Mary,
Please accept my sincerest condolences on the loss of your mother. I know she meant a lot to you and you will miss her in your memories. I am sorry she had to suffer so much discomfort and pain those last months. But now she is free of all that and at peace.
Love, Randal

“ Cindy, I like to believe that when we loose someone we love so much they live on...through us and they are part of us. Your sweet mother lives on in you.
I am blessed to have known your mother, briefly though it was...and blessed to have finally met you.
May you find peace.
