

Marjorie Lucinda Walters

August 11, 1918 - March 13, 2020

Marjorie Lucinda Walters was born to Pastor Henry Haden Poole and Viola Jane Poole on August 11th, 1918 in McLain, Mississippi. She is now walking on the streets of gold with her loving husband whom she was married to for 63 years. She passed to her heavenly home on March 13th at the age of 101.

Her father died when she was only 4 months old. Her mother remarried William Stanson Trigg and the family moved to Clara, MS. It was there she met, fell in love, and married her husband, Judson Vardaman Walters.

After marrying, she and JV moved to Laurel where, in the Glade community, they built a home and a small grocery store, JV Walters Grocery, and raised their two girls. Marjorie ran the store for 49 years before having to close due to JV's health. During those 49 years, she had a major impact on everyone she met. Whether it was the amazing meat in her meat market she carefully prepared, the ice cream she dipped or the contagious smile she met you with, Marjorie made a lasting imprint on the lives of those she met.

She was a member of the Antioch United Methodist Church. There she continued to influence the lives of others with her love for God.

She was preceded in death by her husband, JV Walters; her parents, Henry Haden Poole and Viola Poole Trigg; brothers, Charlie Rayford Poole (Mary Lou) of Irvington, Alabama, Henry Haden Poole (Ina) of Laurel, MS, and Billy Backstrom Trigg (Grace) of Tyler, TX; sister, Ester Davis (Mack) of Pasadena, TX; daughter, Patricia Bullock Rogers of Laurel; and three sons-in-law, Gaston Buddy Everitt, George Jerry Bullock, and John Earl Rogers.

Marjorie is survived by daughter, Marjorie Diane Everitt (Buddy) of Laurel; grandchildren, Donna Pullman (Duke), Russell Everitt, Jay Bullock (Cathy), Tim Bullock (Diane), Pam Blackledge (Stan), Joan Morgan (Ray), Bryan Rogers (Ashley), 12 great grandchildren; and 14 great great grandchildren.

The services will be held at Antioch United Methodist Church on Saturday, March 28, 2020 with visitation beginning at 1 p.m. and the service at 2 p.m. Per family's request, all services will be held outside of the church. Interment will follow at the church cemetery. Bro. Allen Freeman and Bro. Larry Sappington will officiate.

“ We were sorry to hear about Aunt Marjorie's passing. I still have fond memories of visiting their store for a treat and seeing Uncle Jud's horses on our visits to see Grandma Trigg when I was little. When my Dad (Billy Trigg) passed away back in November, we found some old pictures for his memorial, so I'll post one of Aunt Marjorie with her brothers, sister and Mother. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all. Tom Trigg

“ Pam thank you for sharing your grandmother with me! She was beautiful inside and out! Didn't matter how she felt, you walk in and she would flash that smile! Reading her bible, setting in her chair last summer! Love you
