“ I have thousands of memories with Mark from the six years I spent with him. But my favorite memories are the ones where he turned into a professional Chef lol. That man made the best lasagna on the planet. It costed an arm and a leg to make and I literally thought I'd starve sitting there at that counter watching him prepare it and waiting on him to slide it into the oven. But my word it was ALWAYS worth the wait. Those are my best memories with him.
