

Marsha Gail Broadhead Landrum

August 18, 1955 - July 5, 2022

Marsha Gail Broadhead Landrum was born August 18, 1955 in Laurel, MS and made her homegoing on Tuesday, July 5, 2022 at the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson, MS at the age of 66.

Gail was preceded in death by her parents A.J. and Lucille Broadhead, her brother Jimmy Broadhead, and two sisters Linda Drennan and Brenda Ward.

She is survived by her husband of 50 years Darrell Landrum; her daughter Marcie Walters (Gary); her two sons Micheal Landrum (Tracy) and C.J. Landrum (Jami); seven grandchildren Kelsie Sullivan (Aaron), Hayden Landrum (Bryce), Allen Landrum, Kacy Landrum, Brianna Landrum, Hannah Dennis and Joash Dennis; one great granddaughter Ashlynn "Tabbycat" Green; and two sisters Sue Ross and Judy McIntosh.

Gail was a homemaker most of her life. There were times that she attempted to work outside the home and she even went back to school for a time, with the intention of becoming an elementary school teacher, but her passion for her family always led her back home. She truly believed her place was at home taking care of her husband and her children, and she did that job selflessly.

Gail and Darrell were married at the age of 16 and together built a beautiful family legacy based on faith, hope, and love. Gail loved Darrell all her days and always stood by his side. In her last few years, she enjoyed their ministry of singing for their Lord together as “Blessed”, because they always said they knew they were.

Gail was what you might call a true “Mama Bear”. If you wanted to see the fighting side of her, just mess with one of her children or grandchildren. She loved her family deeply, but she loved her Lord and Savior even more. Gail, Mama, Granny, Granny Gail will be greatly missed.
