“ I grew up knowing this sweet lady and the rest of her family, working on their farm hauling hay. Barely a teenager I rode to her home on my bicycle and asked her and Mr. Herman if I could help haul hay. And I did.

“ I remember Martha as the sweet great aunt to Larry's family who made special items for Meri Margaret and Mallory. My last time with her was enjoying family time at Todd Cabin Memorial Day, cutting up watermelon and sitting on the porch. "I THANK GOD UPON EVERY REMEMBRANCE OF YOU." How blessed you were to have her as mother, sister and grandmother.
