“ My Aunt was one of the sweetest blessings of my life. I spent so much of my childhood in her home, growing up right alongside my cousins, who felt more like brothers and sisters to me. She welcomed me with the same love she gave her own children - steady, warm and unconditional.

Oh how I will miss her beautiful laugh and sweet smile. It was the kind of laugh that filled a room soft and joyful, and it always made you feel right at home.

I will miss her terribly but I thank God for the precious memories she leaves in my heart and the love she poured into all of us.

Rest in Peace Aunt Mary Ellon. We will meet again!!

Love, Diane

“ What a wonderful grandmother. Remembering all of our camping and travel times. It was great spending time with her during my summers as a kid. She provided a loving environment and many happy memories. I know my mom is rejoicing in hugging her mom again. You are loved so much and will be dearly missed. Michelle Parish Walters
