“ The "Shaw Sisters" were my introduction to the quiet strength of southern women. My late mother in law Jean shared many wonderful stories about Aunt Mac. My love, thoughts and sympathy go out to all of you, Janie

“ My deepest sympathies to all. I will always cherish the fondest memories of childhood trips to the place of my birth and keep ya'll in my heart always. (I never get to use ya'll up here in NJ so I thought this would be appropriate) Much Love, Billy.

“ Dear Shawn, Joan and Family, Please accept my love and condolences. Aunt "Mac" was a special person. She was very strong woman with a very gentle spirt. I will remember her kindness and how she always made me feel so at home. She truly knew the meaning of Southern Hopitality. Rick and I still talk about her pepper jelly and our girls loved meeting her at her 80th birthday celebraton. I have wonderful childhood memories of summer visits watching the sisters chatting together endlessly. Your Mother will continue to live on in your hearts, in the memories of all those she touched and in the beautiful garden that she loved. Love, Barbara
