

Mildred Robinson

April 2, 1922 - June 13, 2011

Miss Mildred M. Robinson, 89, of Laurel, passed away Monday, June 13, 2011, at Cottonwood Personal Care Home, Laurel. Funeral services will be held at 10 am Thursday, June 16, 2011 at Memory Chapel, with burial in Mt. Olive Methodist Church Cemetery, on Hwy. 29 South of Ellisville. Rev. Bill Hayes and Rev. Brian Gordon will officiate. Miss Robinson was a graduate of Whitfield High School of Overt and received her Registered Nurse's Degree from Mississippi State Charity Hospital Nursing School, Laurel. Her nursing career took her to the Mississippi Gulf Coast area, Georgia, and Vicksburg, MS. She then moved to Laurel and was one of the first nurses hired at Jones County Community Hospital in the early 1950's, where she and the other nurses helped get the hospital equipped to begin operation. She retired from her nursing career after 40 years of nursing service. She was a very compassionate and caring nurse to all of her patients. Miss Robinson was a very generous and giving person. If she knew of a need in her church or community, she was always ready to help. She touched many lives throughout the years. Miss Robinson was a faithful member of her church, West Laurel United Methodist Church, for 56 years. She was very active and served the church in many capacities. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ras B. Robinson and Ira Campbell Robinson, three sisters, Edna Long, Delphia Tucker, and Marjorie Warren, and one brother, Oral S. Robinson and a longtime friend, Adele Summers. Survivors include one brother, Ras B. Robinson and wife, Beverly, of Fort Worth, TX and a special nephew and niece, Herman H. Long of Ellisville, and Marynell L. Howell of Laurel. She is survived by a host of other nephews and nieces. Also the family would like to thank her special caregiver, Shirley Jenerette, for being so faithful and kind. Pallbearers will be Howard Robertson, Jamie Foster, Ray Warren, Mike Jordan, Acie Lee Jones, and Martin Shoemake. Visitation will be held from 5-8 pm on Wednesday, June 15, 2011 at Memory Chapel of Laurel which is in charge of arrangements.
