

Nancy Eiland Wilson

December 4, 1966 - September 9, 2021

Nancy Irene Wilson (Eliand, Ratcliff) passed away on September 9, 2021 at the age of 54.

She is preceded in death by her mother, father, brother, and sister-in-law.

She is survived by her loving husband, Chris Wilson; lovingly remembered by her daughter, Jessica Hatfield; son-in-law, Joshua Hatfield; son, Franklin Ratcliff; and her four granddaughters. She will also be remembered by her sister, brother, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, and many nieces and nephews.

She was a wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, friend and teacher. Believer in Jesus Christ.

29 years of volunteer service with Love In Action Mission.

When God invaded her life 29 years ago it was very evident old things passed and all things were new.

She spent her life serving others. She truly walked out Matthew 25:40. She could be seen around town ministering to the least of these.

She was not a respecter of persons when asked to share her testimony. It touched the hearts of all who heard it.

In her words "I love serving God. Spending time with my husband. Family is very important to me." This was evident in every part of her life.

Visitation will be held for Mrs. Wilson from 2:30-4:00 p.m. Monday, September 13, 2021 at Memory Chapel Funeral Home in Laurel, MS, with the service to follow at 4:00 p.m.

Pallbearers include Buster Lambert, Jason Harris, Zachariah Graham, Kennith Parker, Christopher Beasly, Michael Beasly, and Joshua Everett.
