“ My Big MawMaw was truly a woman everyone loved and respected. She will be truly missed by everyone she touched. She was my rock and my biggest role model. She had a spirit of her that no one could ever match. She is in a better place doing exactly what she always wanted to, looking after all her family at the same time. God hit a grand slam with her. I love u Big Mawmaw!!!

One Easter when I was around 12 years old my mother went to buy me an Easter dress having six kids and not much money, she brought me home a black sleeveless dress all she could afford. Aunt Net, in the mean time, had come to see us and brought me a beautiful pink dress for Easter. I was able to dress like the other girls and mother was able to get the money back on the dress she could not afford for me anyway. Aunt Net was our favorite aunt on both sides of the family! She was much loved by we kids!
