“ There was a time, years ago, when I saw Nicky everyday...even weekends at Bethlehem Nazarene Church and sometimes behind the preachers house in the pasture on Sunday afternoons playing baseball or in the pond at Uncle Shine's; more than one 4th of July celebration and in every Christmas “Program” at Bethlehem from the time we moved back to Mississippi in 1957 until I left home after graduation and Dad's death in August of 1967.

Nicky (and David and Paul) was a fixture of my childhood, just like Charlotte Ann, the Upper Bridge, the Ben Long Place, Singing School with Mrs. Holyfield and even Shady Grove Football! (don't get me wrong, I was closer in age to David exactly One year). Nick was popular, an athlete and a good student...it wasn't hard to look up to Nick.

I remember the first time I wanted a letter jacket was when I saw how cool Nick looked in his! I can see it now, as if it were frozen in time.

And, like all of families we grew up with; the Welborns, Bullocks, Pitts, Dyess, Chancellors, James and Johnsons, Holifields, Adams, Prescotts, Shoemakers, Wedgeworths and Purdue's....I can see them all.....like it was yesterday.

But, things change, 18th birthday, draft card, service, college, marriage, kids!

I couldn't say such a thing till I moved away and grew older; eventually I came to love and miss Sharon...and all the folks that shaped the lives we enjoyed back then. I'm sure Nicky enjoyed the love, sorrows, failures and successes we all have

But, what I remember best about Nick....he was well-liked, kind and considerate, deferential to his elders and not overbearing to “us youngsters!” He made it easy to like him he seemed to have an easy smile for everyone.

I admired Nick because he volunteered to serve his country in time of war and his handshake was always firm and sincere. He had no malice, “what you see...is what you got.”

Sharon has lost one of its best...Rest In Peace Nick.

My sincere sympathies to your family.
