“ Mr Marsh was my 5th grade teacher at Bowling Green in the early 80s. Some of my most cherished childhood memories were created in his class (he taught us how to build a crystal radio!) and outdoors in his beloved arboretum - which gave us South Sac urban kids a much-needed appreciation for nature and the outdoors. I hope the family takes comfort in knowing how much he meant to generations of students. Thank you Mr. Marsh. We love you!
