“ I will miss Pamela very much. We were friends of MD Junction and also Facebook. Thank God for online friends. Pamela was such a great friend since 2007. I have a granddaughter with CF and she helped me through a lot. She always said she had such a wonderful family to help her through everything. I know Pam is doing just fine now. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Dear Phillip and Family, We are so sorry to hear about Pam. We shared so many meals with Pam at the Residence Inn as my husband also had a transplant. I enjoyed her and admired her courage and am truly saddened. Our prayers are with your family.

“ To all my family, Uncle Willard, Aunt Doris, Sandy, Mary and Melissa, You are all in my prayers. I will always remember Lulu with her curls and smile and her laugh, following us around, wanting to do everything with us. She was one of the bravest, strongest people I have ever known and we should all live our lives as she did, to the fullest, never giving up, always fighting to live our lives. Love you all and Lulu is completely healed now and forever. Love and God bless. Diane “ I've never met Pam face to face but my heart has a special place for her and always will.

Until we do meet, Pam, you will forever remain in my heart. I will keep praying for your family so they may find comfort & peace and that their heart aches will be eased by God's love.

I'm going to make a donation in honor of your memory to the CF Foundation (www.cff.org). I know you are breathing easy now but there's no doubt you will continue to help us in the fight for a cure. And one more thing, Pam, I just want to thank you for sharing your journey with us. I know it couldn't have been easy putting your life out there to everyone. But I'm glad you did. I'm glad through your blogs you gave everyone a perspective of your life and because of you I am more appreciative of each breath God gives me.

Matthew 5:4-Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
