“ I would like to send my deepest condolences to Mr.Charlie and the rest of Mrs.Thrash’s family. I happen to get on Facebook and saw where someone tagged her old page on my timeline and because I don’t get on Facebook much when I saw the name I had to go and see! Let’s see... I met her and Charlie when I had finished college at my first job at the hospital where from the first day of helping them she was so polite and made me feel as if I had known her all my life. Over the years I would see them more and more and it would truly feel as if we were family in some way from her checking on my 5 year old son and remembering everything I had told her about him and that made me feel confident as a young single father. I never would have imagined that the last time I would see her would be my last and it happen to be busy that day and I didn’t get a chance to wait with her as he went to get the truck 🙄 but I do remember her asking how was my son and it was some new people at work that day and she had introduced herself to them and touched their hearts even tho she was in so much pain. I just want to say that she touched my heart and motivated me to be the best I can be when I felt as if I was stuck or lost .. I will forever remember her and if anybody close to Mr. Charlie sees this please tell him I am praying for him and send my deepest condolences. She will be truly missed ! Thank you Charlie for all the help you and her have been with words of wisdom and motivation especially when they found out my truck was broke and I was riding my motorcycle back and forth to work for a year. So many good memories that I will remember her by !
