

Patricia Ann McAlpin

September 2, 1936 - January 6, 2014

Patricia Ann McAlpin, 76, of Laurel, died Monday, January 6, 2014, at South Central Regional Medical Center in Laurel.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, January 9, 2014, at Memory Chapel with burial to follow at Shady Grove Cemetery in Jones County. Dr. Randy Turner will officiate.

Pat was a loving and selfless person to all who knew her. She was a retired school teacher who touched many lives. Although untimely, her passing was peaceful and she was surrounded by friends and family when she was called home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Pat was a woman of strong faith who volunteered her time where needed. She was active in the church where she enjoyed singing in the choir for many years. She lived her life serving others and was an example of strength and grace to all who came to know her.

Pat was preceded in death by her husband, Troy McAlpin.

She is survived by her daughter, Connie Rambin. She is also survived by the following: grandchildren, Ashley Rambin, Gus Rambin, Jr. and his wife, Christina, and Marshall Rambin; great-grandchildren, Sierra Rambin, Skyler Rambin, Ethan Rambin, and Maddie Rambin; sister, Fern Barefoot; brother and sister-in-law, Tim and Patricia Waldrup; son-in-law, Gus Rambin, Sr., her beloved pomeranian, Lacy; very special friend, Bill Ruth; and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Gus Rambin, Jr., Marshall Rambin, Kyle Barefoot, Kaleb

Meeks, Dylan Meeks, and Brett Barefoot.

Visitation will be held from 5 until 8 p.m. Wednesday, January 8, 2014, at Memory Chapel which is in charge of the arrangements. To view and sign the family guest book, visit www.memorychapellaurel.com.

“ Connie, so sorry for your loss. Pat was a special lady who was loved by all. She will be greatly missed. I remember the good ole days at Stinton. We would meet up in her room and she would play piano. We had the best time singing with our students. I will, also,miss her on Bunko nights. Charlotte James
