Patricia Ann Pearson

January 7, 1943 – April 28, 2025

Patricia Ann Pearson passed away, surrounded by family, after a life marked by creativity, quiet strength, and deep love for those closest to her.

Patricia was the beloved daughter of the late Meryl and Evelyn Hall and the devoted wife of the late James T. Pearson, Sr. She was preceded in death by her son, James T. Pearson, Jr., her father-in-law William Fred Pearson, mother-in-law Phredonia Pearson, her sister-in-law Lanell Parker, and her sister-in-law Mary Holifield.

She is survived by her brother, Darrell Holifield; her son, Jerry Foreman; and her daughter Kristal Gray and son-in-law Gregory Gray; her granddaughter Samantha Haas and her husband Bradley Haas, along with their daughters Charli and Thalia Mae, and her granddaughter Jenna Pearson, who held a special place in her heart.

Patricia had a lifelong gift for working with her hands. She worked alongside her mother-in-law at Pearson's Nursery until retirement, then stepped out on her own to open a woodworking and craft business. She ran a permanent booth at Edgewater Mall for many years, bringing beauty and care to every piece she made.

Patricia loved to cook, decorate cakes, design floral arrangements, and unwind with her favorite TV shows. She was sweet, kind, and hard-working—a woman who deeply loved her family, delighted in baking for those she loved, and wasn't shy about letting everyone know how she felt about Texas.

She will be remembered not only for her talent and dedication but also for the quiet, steady way she loved her family. We will miss her deeply, but we're grateful for every moment we had with her.

Pallbearers: Greg Gray, Bradley Haas, Caleb Kelley, Buddy Ottis, Mark Thornton, and James Garick.

A graveside service will be held on Friday, May 2, 2025, at 10:00 a.m at Memorial Gardens of Laurel.
