“ I was sorry to receive the news of Paul's death. His obituary was just sent out from Memory Chapel by email. Pat and I always loved "Bug." This nickname from his youth was the one we always used. He was a funny and loving guy and we loved being with him for he was always carrying on some sort of foolishness. The Thomas family has been hit hard in December by death, first Mavis and now Paul. You are all with me my heart and I pray for the comfort that brings peace to all of you. For those who may not know me, especially Paul's children, "Bug" was a first cousin on my father's side of the family. His mother, Aunt Irene, was a sister to my Father, Carley J. Parker. Please accept my sympathies and know that I love you all.
