“ Dear Glynda, Janice, Ellen, Robbie, and your family:

I am writing for my mother, Flora Lou Huddleston Garrett and our family. We regret we were unable to come to the services for your precious mother. My mother wants you to know she is now unable to travel due to her health; otherwise, she would be with you all. Peggy was her best friend and cousin growing up. While they were rearing children and working they were not always able to be in contact. In later years, they spent time talking and laughing on the telephone. These conversations were so uplifting for my mother. Your Mom was a life long blessing to my Mom. My Mom wants you to know her heart and mind are filled with such precious memories of time she spent with your Mom. You are all in our prayers We love you all dearly.
