

Peggy Sue Walker

February 23, 1934 - April 22, 2023

Peggy Sue Walker, 89, of Heidelberg, Mississippi, passed away Saturday, April 22, 2023, in Laurel, Mississippi. Peggy Walker was born February 23, 1934, in Heidelberg to George Robert and Myrtis Satcher. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband of 59 years and the love of her life, Karl Edward Walker. She is survived by her son, Robert Walker and his wife Helen and her three brothers: James (Caldonia), John (April), and Douglas, as well as two step grandchildren and six step great grandchildren, and a plethora of nieces and nephews. She fiercely loved her family, friends, and Dr. Pepper.

Peggy married Karl in 1951, and served faithfully as his wife as he served the country in a military career, then as Scout Master in her home community of Heidelberg. In early 2020 she moved to Summerland Manor in Bay Springs, where she enjoyed being part of that community that she considered home.

Most of all Peggy loved Jesus. She was a life-long Presbyterian, a faithful and beloved member of the Heidelberg Presbyterian Church. She enjoyed Bible study and stoutly defended the faith.

Visitation will be Tuesday evening, April 25th, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m., at the Heidelberg Presbyterian Church. The funeral service will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday morning, April 26th, at the Heidelberg Presbyterian Church with a graveside service following at McFarland Presbyterian Church Cemetery. Pallbearers are Randy Dart, JT Everette, Doug Satcher, Josh Satcher, Keith Satcher, Kevin Satcher, and DJ Todd.

Her family would like to extend special thanks to the ICU staff at South Central Hospital for such wonderful and compassionate care her last week, especially Alicia, Alisia, and Collin.
