“ Mr Philip was my dads friend. I was just a kid when he came into my life. He was the funniest coolest guy i known. He was my idol. I wanted to be cool like him. We had a deer camp in Crockett Texas that we all loved and would spend the first week of deer season together each year. He loved to cook and we loved to eat. He enjoyed that seeing us full and happy. We did have a few drinks.. just a few each night.. lol. He could tell jokes like no other.. he just had that personality. We laughed till midnight each night and got up at 5 am each morning to make the morning hunt. He was a good shot with his 243 Winchester and seen him slay a number of BIG BUCKS! I wanted to be him.. he was my idol. He was my 2nd dad.. he was always there for me.. always.

THANK YOU MR. PHILIP FOR BEING MR. PHILIP, there will not be another one like you! God broke the mold when he made you!

LOVE YOU MR. PHILIP and THANK YOU FOR THE GOOD TIMES
