“ A special memory of mine were the fun weekends at Tucei's Fishing Camp in Gautier, Ms in the 1960's with our families including Janie and Rudy Graham, Ola and Curtis Jones, Hilda and Carl Flynt, Jean and Bob Laten and others. We stayed in the little concrete cabins and enjoyed being together whether it was taking walks around the camp, cooking and eating good homemade Southern food or seeing the excitement of the men when they brought in their "catches of the day". I have lots of precious memories of my cousin Janie who was a wonderful and generous person and lived a good Christian life. She will be greatly missed.
