“ I enjoyed getting reacquainted with Ralph at our 50th high school reunion in May of this year. Ralph and I compared our military careers that day and found out that we were both stationed in Maryland at some time. He seemed to have a good time at the reunion. I light a candle in his honor - as close as I could get to Army green! Thank you, Ralph, for your service.

*The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on Life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.
On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents to spread,
And glory guards, with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead.*
