“ Martha and I wish to extend our heartfelt sympathies. Rethea was a dear friend since childhood. I had spoken with her several times about her moving home. She was and still is in my mind, a very special friend. I will miss our phone and internet chats. I sent her a couple photographs I had of Dwight and we shared our memories. I also sent her some of Daddy's station across the street from your office. Should we ever be able to help you in anyway, please give us a call.
