“ Ricky Lowe and I grew up next door to each other on Old Bay Springs Road. His Mother owned Lowe’s curb store. It even had a meat department (deli) sandwich meats, hoop cheese. On Saturdays Betty, Charlene, Janson and I would play Monopoly all day in the back room of the store! Lots of laughter and memories! One day Ricky had got a BB gun for Christmas we were playing in my Pawpaw Montgomery ‘s backyard and His sister Charlene had come to get him to come home an on accident he shot her with that gun!!! I don’t remember seeing that gun again! I am so sorry that Alzheimer had taken all your memories away! Rest In Peace Ricky!! You will be missed . Thank you for the memories!!!

“ Ricky and I went to school together from elementary thru high school. He was always my friend and his character was so delightful. Friendly, courteous, easy going, smart as a whip, always willing to help. He helped in the store and really enjoyed it. I lost touch with Ricky a long while back but will always remember his smile and our friendship.

Prayers to the family during this time of your loss. So sorry
