“ Itch and I didn't see each other often, but when we did, we had a long discussion. We met playing baseball as young boys in little league. He was the third baseman and I played shortstop. Later we got to enjoy Stacy and my son Wesley playing baseball. Stacy and Shilloy, we are praying for you and your family. May the Lord bless you and keep you.

“ For many years Butch treated me as if I was one of his own kids. My heart is heavy beyond belief with the news of him passing. Many prayers have gone out for the family and many more will follow. Having lost both of my own parents not long ago, I pray the family can learn to celebrate his life more than they mourn his death.
