“ Roberta Miller will be greatly missed by all the senior adults at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. Ms Bert never missed a trip no matter where we went. From the Great Smoky Mountains to sailing in the Gulf Coast she was always up for the trip. She never missed a shopping trip to flea markets or rummage sales. I loved her like a mother. Go rest high Ms Bert❤️

“ One of my favorite memories of Ms. Bert was when Bill and I took her to Collinsville to eat dinner when Lisa was working at the fair. We had such a great time and she told some of the funniest stories. She will surely be missed!

“ Aunt Bert has always been so special to me. I remember visiting her when I was very young and she would tell me stories and always make sure I was full before leaving her dinner table. She was the best cook! She raised her children to be loving and caring just like her. I'll miss her visits. I love you, Aunt Bert!☐❤️
