

Roland Eugene Wingo

June 29, 1930 - August 4, 2017

Roland Eugene Wingo passed away peacefully in his home on Friday, Aug. 4, 2017 surrounded by his family.

A private memorial service with immediate family will be held at a later date. Memory Chapel will handle arrangements.

Mr. Wingo, 87, was born in Ecu, Mississippi, in 1930 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Melton Wingo. He will be remembered as a loving father and grandfather.

Described as a selfless and generous man, he always had a sharp wit and was a straight shooter.

He was a navy veteran, where he served for 22 years. After retirement from military service, he had a successful career in the food management industry. He retired from the University of Southern Mississippi. He also worked at Morrison's in Houston, Texas, and Laurel and the West Point Country Club in West Point. He loved playing cards, reading, golf, hunting, cooking, carving walking sticks, gardening and crossword puzzles.

Preceding him in death were his parents; daughters, Teresa Lynn Duhon and Sharon Leigh Haight; brothers, Thomas Wayne Wingo and Lamar Madden Wingo; and granddaughter, Hudson Madelaine Johnson.

He is survived by his wife, Judith Reddoch Wingo; daughters, Mary Helen Wingo Miller (Glenn), Katherine Wingo Feldman (Chad) and Madelaine Reddoch Johnson (Chris); grandchildren, Thomas Reilly Miller (Julia), Brennan Kyle Miller, Carson Reddoch Feldman, Amber Freeman, Matthew Haight, Amanda Perrin, Hannah McAliney, Aaron Palacios, Chelsey Duhon and Brandon Duhon; and great-grandchildren, Helen Vanstory Miller, Tatum McAliney, Eli McAliney, Cainan McAliney, Laken Perrin, Drew Freeman, Abigail Freeman and Josh Freeman.

He leaves us rich with wonderful memories.
