“ I will never forget that while cutting your hair, we would both laugh super hard every time when I asked if you would like your mustache layered. I don't know why, but it struck us both as hysterical. I have missed you since you moved to New York and you will always be in my heart and my mind and my scissors.

“ Dear Olivia - we feel very privileged to have spent a delightful day and evening with you both, on the occasion of Debbie and Kelly's marriage. Such a wonderful couple. The legacy that Ron has left behind will remain with all those who met him and many of those who didn't! Our love and warmest wishes to you and your family - Martin and Ruth (Brownsey)

“ Dear Olivia (and family),
Our prayers are with you in your time of loss. Ron was a special man. His presence will be deeply missed in the following years at Christmas time, as we have grown accustomed to the two of you being on the Landrum homestead during the holidays.
Much love,
Julie (Landrum) and Daryl Boutwell

“ Years of great conversation for an hour every four weeks while cutting Ron's hair and beard will stay with me for life. Dinners both out and up in the condo were so much fun and leave me with great memories. A day on Ron's boat (that I don't have full memory of) helped me with some issues. He was a loving friend a mental partner in crime..lol..
Goodby my friend, be with God.

“ Never had to doubt where Ron stood on any subject. He was a man of intelligence and I was always ready to hear his prospective on many subjects. God bless Olivia and the family in this sorrowful time. Love you all.
