“ I was so sad to hear of Ruby's passing. I loved doing her hair, we never ran out of things to talk & laugh about. I will miss her sweet face

“ As a teenager growing up in Salem Heights, I remember Mrs. Ruby as being incredibly sweet and kind. Many Sunday mornings, she was the first person I saw entering the Sanctuary. Sometimes, I would sit with her and Mr. Bennie, and she always made me feel loved. On occasion, I would visit their home, and those moments remain special to me. I have such fond memories of Mrs. Ruby that I will always cherish. - Dwayne Parker
