

Ruby Mae Key

July 30, 1932 - June 28, 2023

Ruby Sumrall Key, 90, passed away at her home in Sandersville, surrounded by her family. She was born in Yazoo County (Holly Bluff), MS, on July 30, 1932 to Joseph and Velma Sumrall.

She grew up in Tuckers Crossing and attended Glade school, she played guard on the basketball court, and she always said she may have been short, but she could play ball! Hot Rod Ruby lived a full and exciting life very few get a chance to do. She loved to dance and was at the Petal American Legion every chance she got and right up to getting sick she enjoyed ATV mud riding and camping. It was hard not only for her children, but her grandchildren to keep up with her.

The family would like to thank Deaconess Hospice employees. Her nurse, Brittany, was the best and her aide, Jennie, not only showered Mama with tenderness and care, but the fur babies as well. They would watch for her to drive up and patiently wait for their treat.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Lavell Sumrall; sister, Doris Sumrall Langley; daughter, Tenadra (Tina) Sims; and grandson, Christopher Chuck Davis.

She is survived by her son, Carl Soley (Shelly), of Dayton, Texas and daughters, Linda Woods, of Laurel; Sheila Seals, of Laurel; Cynthia Wood (Earl), of Laurel; Bonita Flynn (Michael), of Sandersville; Theresa Woodward (Duran), of Ellisville; 9 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and 1 great-great grandson, Jasper Knight.

A graveside service will be Saturday, July 1, 2023, at Fairfield Baptist Church in Moselle, MS at 2:00 p.m. Chaplain Bruce Walley will officiate.

Pallbearers are Riley Soley, Michael Dennis, Landon Dennis, Jacob Knight, Paul Church and Buddy Henderson. Honorary pallbearers are Brandon Alt and Richard Long.
