“ I will never forget Mrs. Ruby. She would always offer encouragement when I would visit mom, during her short time at Summerland Manor. I recall thinking to myself, what would Mrs. Ruby do in this situation? She lived so long and loved our Savior & her family. She always kept her outlook bright and if it wasn't, I doubt she'd let us know. She was just so sweet. I'm glad she is home with her husband, who she spoke up often, with bittersweet smiles.
