“ Mother, I pray that you are at peace and you are surrounded by the love ones that have already passed, I know papaw and mamaw and josh where so glad to see you, I remember you talking about seeing them again one day! I know I will forever miss you as I have for so long, I just wish I had one day or even just 5 minutes to tell you how much I love you, and how much I had already missed you, but I will see you again- I know you will be there waiting for me with open arms. Right now, I have never felt so alone, but time will bring back smiles, I keep telling everyone to keep your traditions and memory going that way, that's what you would want, so I grieve in my silence, but I know the lord hears all my prayers for you and to you. I miss you and love you so much Momma. Im sooo sorry I didn't tell you that in so long! But I know you knew that and knew I would be there in the end!! I hope you will forgive me but one lesson you taught me -don't ever not say I love you to the people that you do so I promise I never will let time go by again- I love you momma.REST IN PEACE- kimberly
