“ I am so sorry to hear about Sandy. I will always remember her on the tennis court. She could always beat me out for that top spot next to Betty Beard. I remember her style and grace on the court.. She was and will always be the original Golden girl. I can still see her in Daphne Park with her golden tan, red hair shining in the sunshine as she aced those serves of hers. Thanks to Betty I had a chance to speak with her on the phone at one of our last Christmas parties in Laurel. I am so grateful for that chance. My condolences to her family.

“ I was crushed beyond words to learn of Sandy's passing. She was an R. H. Watkins beauty, a cheerleader, and a gorgeous redhead who never had her nose up in the air. Sandy was the real deal. Before Oprah coined the term, she was indeed "her authentic self." My condolences and prayers to Buddy (her brother) and her surviving family. I never met Ryan, but if she is Sandy's girl, she's a spark plug. I had not seen Sandy since our 20-year high school reunion, but got a few e-mails from her, mainly about horses and what I was up to. Another reminder that every day is a gift from God. May you be riding all the paint horses you want, Sandy.
