“ Hello Kathy

I was very sorry to hear about he passing of your mother. She was a very beautiful lady. She was very well respected in the community and was just a wonderful person. May God bless you through these hard times and give you the strength to get through her passing.

“ Sara was one of the sweetest ladies and a wonderful neighbor to us. She and Winston won a place in our hearts. Will remember all the times we spent together talking. Let one of us get sick and here she would be bringing something she cooked for us. She definitely has her crown in heaven.
