“ Aunt Sarah was the sweetest, kindest, and most loving aunt and person you could know. With all of the sadness and grief she had in her life, she stayed positive and caring always for others. She couldn't have been loved more by all of her Johnson family—and each of us knew that she loved us the same. I will miss being able to hear her voice and sweet laugh but I know she is literally in heaven so happy to be reunited with the loves of her life that passed on way too soon. I will always cherish the many memories that we shared together. My love and prayers to her grands and their families.

“ Ms Sarah was one of the sweetest people I’ve ever known. When we went to Fairview she took me and Harry as part of her family. We felt her love not just as her pastor and wife but as family. We loved her dearly! She is missed greatly! My prayers are with all the family!

Annell and Julie I’m so sorry about Sarah’s passing. I was just thinking about her last night. I knew her birthday was coming up. I was remembering our every weekend at lake bounds, playing ball on the weekends at aunt Vera’s front yard. She could hit that ball out of the park. She was,a wonderful cousin. Love you, Pansy
