“ I met Sharon in the 80's in the town of Marks. One of the first things I noticed and had grown to appreciate was her infectious laugh, which she kept through her last days. I enjoyed communicating with her more often over the past few years and she became closer friends and I often called her my sister. I am sure she is with her dad who I know she missed very much. I hope she has introduced herself to my granddaughter who proceeded her in heaven.

Rest in Peace Sharon!
