“ Dearest Shane, Shannon, Sheila, and Sherrill, To let you all know you are thought of by a very old friend. Time goes by, but old friends never do. You are thought of with deepest heartfelt sympathies during this time. I will always remember passing your house and for all to know it had all your names proudly displayed on a little black sign, for if you will recall, your mother and dad began your names with an "S". Shane, you taught me to tie my lace shoe in elementary school, Shannon, you were always dedicated and loyal and a dedicated family member, Sheila you were just a little sister at that time. Sherrill was to follow after his brother Shovan was born. What ever happened to the "Hornet" nest hung on your dining room wall? It would occasionally have a hornet surprise us as I remember! Your mother was dedicated and your father as I recalled really was accomplished at his automotive seat recovering talents. Shane, we had so much fun exploring the "Woods". Time does really get away. Amazing how we get taken on journeys in our life. Your family will always be dear and our memories cherished and held close to the heart. I am so sorry and can feel your pain. May the peace of the Lord be with each of you. Your friend.
