“ I have sweet memories of the Rushing family building their house on Washington St. in Ellisville. We were neighbors. Sherry would play with us even though we were years older. A beautiful lady. After not seeing her for years I reconnected two years ago and she (although sick) still had that beautiful smile and personality. God bless her family. She is healed.

God bless you the family. Praying for you. I got to see Sherry several months ago in hospital and pray with her. She is home free. Know that. Love y'all. Kent Miller
