

Shirley Kathryn Moss Sims

February 5, 1938 - March 29, 2016

Shirley Kathryn M. Sims, 78, of Laurel, passed away on Tuesday, March 29, 2016, at Extra Care in Laurel. She was born on February 5, 1938, in Stringer to Opie and Chlotilde Moss.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, March 30, 2016, at Memory Chapel with visitation beginning at 12 noon. Burial followed at Fair Ridge Cemetery in Jasper County. Rev. Corbey Jones officiated.

Mrs. Sims was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She was a homemaker and was proud to say that she babysat all of her grandchildren. For years, she and her husband enjoyed fishing together at their camp in Louisiana. Her graduating class was the last class to graduate from Mossville High School. Mrs. Sims was a member of Good Hope Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Opie and Chlotilde Moss; and brothers, Sidney Moss and Bill Moss.

Survivors include her husband, Charles E. (Man) Sims of Laurel; two daughters, Dena Moss (Neil) of Moss and Beverly Parker (Karl) of Stringer; five grandchildren; and five great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Neil Moss, Dustin Moss, Chris Tullos, Chad Parker, Lane

Parker, and Karl Parker.

“ Such a precious lady. She was so sweet and angelic. She knew everything that was going on and could express herself so well. I visited with her at Extra Care and absolutely adored her. She was a beautiful soul, and I know she is with Jesus. I look forward to seeing her with the saints in glory.
