“ I was one of Sid's classmates. Sid was always friendly and cheerful with a great sense of humor. My favorite memory is seeing him at our 40 year class reunion. I believe that he already knew he was sick, but that didn't keep him from joking around and teasing us about how we had changed since high school. He never let us know he was sick and seemed to have a wonderful time. It was so good to see him. He will be greatly missed. Patsy Rodgers, Northeast Jones High School, Class of 1974

“ To the children of Sidney Boutwell Jr. I'm a cousin of your dad. My daddy was Mason Robbins a brother to Grayson Robbins. I know that you don't remember me and might not have ever met me. However I knew your grandmother, my first cousin Bonnie. We loved all of Uncle Grayson's girls. They were so good to me & my sister Thelda. Of course the boys were special too but the girls would paint our finger nails and tell ghost stories.....all those things that become memories. Cole & Courtney I have never heard anything but good things about your dad (little Sid to me). He sounds like he was the jolly person that was a trait of the Robbins family. Our prayers are with you & remember the good times & always live as your dad would have wanted you to live. To Sidney Ray Boutwell Sr. & Teresa, we love you and are praying for you in the days ahead. You have had a rough two years. We hope to see you at the funeral tomorrow. Love your entire family, Doris & Terrell Broom

“ Sid and I attended grammar and high school together. He was such a kind and thoughtful person! I saw him several months before our 40th class reunion at a local restaurant and he was so sweet and asked about many of our classmates. Not only the popular ones, but some that many might not even remember. He was just that kind of guy. He will be truly missed! Gone but not forgotten!

“ It was great seeing Sid at our class reunion. From reading about his life, he has been a giver of himself, especially in his military service. A great legacy for his family. My God comfort his family now and the many days ahead.

“ I wrote this on my Instagram and wanted to share. Words can't describe how I feel about this man. I know I won't even be half the man he was. Ex-#Military, Retired #PoliceOfficer, and an #AmericanAirlines #Captain #Pilot. Those are some incredibly huge shoes to fill. Most of all he was an amazing #Father. He gave me anything and everything I could ask for. When I got my license he gave me his truck to drive while he drove a piece of junk that kept breaking down until he bought me my own brand new truck. He was constantly doing things like that. He was #Superman. Unfortunately his #Kryptonite was #Cancer. Not many people knew, but he battled hard for 2 years, and never once cried of pain or took the easy way. I saw him go through things I couldn't imagine a human going through, but in the end he went more #Peaceful than I could have ever prayed for. My mom, sister, and myself were by his side until the very end and wouldn't trade it for anything. I know he's in #Heaven flirting with angels and flying planes with his brother. I will love and miss you forever. #FlyingEternally

“ He was such a great guy. One who you knew that if you ever really needed him, he would be there.

Thanks for being our hero during Katrina.

Sid and Cole came from Dallas loaded down food, batteries, gas, generator, lights, cash and many other items (which Courtney had purchased at Sam's). He wouldn't take any money. He just wanted to make sure everyone was ok and provided for-especially my mother. She was his main reason for coming. She loved him as her son; he loved her as his mother. She's greeting him now in heaven.
